

Thomas, Duke of

*Paphos, Earl of Kinsey, Baron of Hosker, Duke of Limassol;
To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting.*

Whereas the first woman to appear in the archives of my Seraglio, who made a sufficiently fleshly appearance therein, and who was born on or after the first day of January in the year of Our Lord two thousand (which most reckon as marking the beginning of the present century) was a young actress working under the stage name of Natalie Knight, and whose birth name was not known to me at the time these letters were drawn up,

Let all know that I, of my especial grace, certain knowledge and mere motion, do by these presents erect, appoint and create my Natalie Knight to the dignity, state and degree of Baronetess Knight and for myself, my heirs and successors, do appoint, give and grant unto her the said name, state, degree, style, dignity, title and honour of Baronetess Knight, to have and to hold unto her and the heirs of her body;

Willing and by these presents granting, for myself, my heirs and successors, that she and her heirs aforesaid, and every one of them successively, may enjoy and use all the rights, privileges, precedences and advantages to the degree of a baronet, duly and of right belonging, which baronets of my Duchy of Paphos have heretofore used and enjoyed, or as they do at present use and enjoy.

In witness whereof, I have caused these my letters to be made patent, and the Great Seal of the Duchy of Paphos to be hereunto affixed, on this the twenty-ninth day of December in the sixth year of my regency in the Kingdom of Cyprus.
